Business items	Research Article	Grace reviewed the Functional Reach and Gait Speed Improvement in A Matter of Balance Participants article with the group. Discussed data collection methods from our various programs. Melanie will do the article for the May meeting.
	Newsletters	April was the last newsletter we had on the schedule. Will discuss at a future meeting whether or not we want to continue creating a newsletter
	Discussion on collaboration with Injury Prevention Day in November	Co-chairs suggested collaborating efforts around Injury Prevention Day in November. There was discussion about creating a toolkit with a press release and social media items that could be housed on the CTN-IP webpage for people to download. This would keep the messaging consistent across the state. Laurie will contact Sara Brandspigel at the Center for Injury and Violence Prevention to see if they are interested in collaborating. Grace brought up Injury Prevention Advocacy Day on March 24 th and shared that she will be participating. She created an issue brief which she shared with the group. Need to advocate for the injury prevention field to get more money. The question was asked about the process through CTN if the group is interested in CTN supporting a bill. Laurie will reach

	Discussion on Falls Prevention	out to the legislative committee to determine what that process is. Melanie and Laurie have attended numerous meetings with various individuals on falls prevention and have determined the bandwidth is not there at this time to start a coalition. Some discussion around current efforts with EMS on falls prevention. Instead, the co-chairs proposed the idea of collaborating as a group on efforts during Falls Prevention Week in September. Jasmine shared the passport idea that she had created a couple of years ago and didn't get off the ground due to Covid. The group thought this sounded like a good idea and would spend time at the next meeting moving this idea forward. In the meantime, Jasmine would share the passport file with the group to begin brainstorming ideas.
